Sub: Rescheduling bank loans/reducing the interest rates in respect of the loans availed by the students for pursuing technical/professional education.

Sir,

I am directed to say that recently our State has witnessed devastating natural calamities like cyclone "Phailine" and heavy flood which has seriously affected the economy of the general public.

The students who are pursuing higher technical/professional education availing bank loan are facing difficulties to pay huge interest for availing such educational loans. Further, the technical/professional educational institutions have raised the institutions and imparting education availing bank loans are also facing similar difficulties.

I am, therefore, to request you to kindly consider to reschedule bank loans/reduce the interest rates in respect of the loans availed by the students and professional institutions from various banks so as to extend the most needed assistance to the poor and needy students and professional institutions of the State.

Yours faithfully,

Additional Secretary to Government
